Penha Longa Hotel, Spa & Golf Resort - The estate of Penha Longa in Portugal, located within a 545-acre National Park on the southern Sintra mountains has been a place of sanctuary for centuries. The Catholic fathers founded their monastery here, finding peace and tranquility in its setting whilst the Royal Family came in the summer months to find a cool refuge from the heat of nearby Lisbon. Today, the Penha Longa Hotel Spa & Golf Resort retains a calming atmosphere of mystery and meditation. The breathtakingly beautiful resort, encompasses a luxurious hotel, a nineteenth century palace originally founded as a monastery in the fourteenth century, two spectacular golf courses and a superb Six Senses Spa.

Sintra, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, was so named by the primitive Iberians after the Celtic goddess, Sintra, meaning Mountain of the moon. Lying just a 30 minute transfer from Lisbon and only ten from the coastline of Estoril and Cascais, it is a town of sumptuous royal palaces and beautiful landscapes which was popular in the nineteenth century with artists and poets – especially Lord Byron (who called the old town “a glorious Eden”) and Hans Christian Anderson.
